False Reporting

Misuse- Though reporting is anonymous, law enforcement has the ability to track and identify the origin of false reporting. Any student who willfully and knowingly makes a false report or provides false information in a report, will be subject to disciplinary action, which includes but is not limited to expulsion.

Pursuant to Florida Statute 1006.07:

Any student who is determined to have made a threat or false report, as defined by §§ 790.162 and 790.163, [F.S.], respectively, involving school or school personnel's property, school transportation, or a school-sponsored activity will be expelled, with or without continuing educational services, from the student's regular school for a period of not less than 1 full year and referred for criminal prosecution."

For instances involving falsified reports involving bombs, explosives, or any incendiary device fall under Bomb Threat in the Student Code of Conduct and is an expellable offense.

The Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School Public Safety Act (SB 7026) requires a mandatory mental health services referral for students who commit the following infractions: (1) any student who is determined to have made a threat or false report.
